Kossuth and Captain Long .- The New York THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 18. Courier and Enquirer gives the following as offi cial:

Captain Long assures us that no difficulty whatever occurred between them during the voyage—that the bearing of the Maygar leader was in keeping with the deportment of a gentleman. From the time the steamer left Turtleman. From the time the steamer left Turkey, until she reached Gibralter, the utmost harmony prevailed on board; and the relations between the Hungarians and the crew, including officers, could not have been characterized by more unanimity of feeling, or a better understanding. When the vessel put into the port at Marseilles, it became known to Kossuth that a cabal were at work to use him, if possible, to the overtheaw of the Bonaparte dynasty—that the overthrow of the Bonaparte dynasty—that is, afford excuse to the Socialists and Red Re-publicans to seize upon any exigency that might arise, consequent upon the passage of the dis-tinguished Maygar through the French territo-ry. Kossuth freely conferred with Capt. Long upon the subject; and after this mutual con-sultation, he declined leaving the vessel, as originally intended, until he had first obtained permission of the French President. For this purpose, the contents of a note was telegraphed purpose, the contents of a note was telegraphed to Paris, and a reply received refusing to grant the permission asked.

While this was transpiring, the Socialists became clamorous, and informed Kossuth that if he would undertake the journey, they would conduct him to any port on the English Channel he might designate, at the point of the bayonet, and "hedge his passage with a reserve of a hundred thousand swords." Kossuth persisted in declining the invitation, although anxious to get to England for the benefit of his health, as soon as possible; and these were circumstances soon as possible; and these were circumstances which called forth the Marseilles address, so frequently alluded to. Whatever exaggerations the press have put forth, have been the result ignorance or malice. We have authority for saying that Sir Stratford Canning, the British Ambassador at the Sublime Porte, extended the invitation for a visit himself, and assured Kossuth of the sympathy and fellowship that awaited him there. Still, the exiled chief did not finally determine on this movement until it had become obviously Numerous incidents of the voyage have come to our knowledge, affecting the character of Kossuth, which we would willingly detail, could we afford the space for that purpose. At Gibraltar, the 55th, 13th, 26th, and 44th regiments of the British army stationed there, tendered him a complimentary dinner, which he declined until every follower in his suite had received a similar invitation, and only then would accept their hospitality. This trait shows that the devotion manifested is not confined strictly to one side. On quitting the Mississippi, he wrote a feeling letter to Captain Long, tendering him his grateful thanks for the manner in which he had acquitted himself toward him, and enclosing a note which he desired might be read to the crew, conveying like expressions of gratitude. We took special pains to exact correct information, and but one sentiment seems to prevail on board, that Kossuth is deserving of all the esteem and personal respect which may have attached to him, and that stories counteracting this impression are undeserving the slightest attention.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY!

"NONE NEED DESPAIR."

All must admit there never has been given such a mass of genuine testimony in Javor of any other medicine. Give it a trial! It cures when all other remedies have failed. Greater weight of testimony cannot be given—from the first men in this country.

BALTIMORE Sept. 18, 1851. GENTLEMEN: After a full and satisfactory trial of the medicine prepared by you, and very generally known as Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, which you recom-mended me to use as a relief for the debility and general mended me to use as a relief for the debility and general prostration of my system, the result of taking three bottles of this wonderful compound has, I am pleased to say, resulted in a restoration of strength, a keen appetite, and an activity of body which I have not enjoyed for a long time. So satisfied am I of the virtues of this medicine, that I have confidently recommended it to many of my friends and acquaintances, and am happy to learn that in a great majority of cases the most beneficial results have stamped the infallibility of the Tincture. In my own case, I am satisfied that your advice to me to give it a trial has, under the blessing of a kind Providence, resulted in a restoration is health, for which I am truly thankful.

Respectfully, JOS. K. STAPLETON, 198 W. Baltimore street.

MORE HOME TESTIMONY.—NONE NEED DESPAIR. TRY IT AND BE CURED.—WONDERFUL AND PERMANENT CURE OF DYSPEPSIA.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gentlemen: This is to certify that in the year 1843 I was attacked with a nervous affection, in consequence of Dyspepsia or Indigestion, which continued some eighteen months, during which time my sufferings were intense, both of body and mind. I tried every thing I could think or hear of, (as there was much sympathy for me.) and at length all eforts failed to cure me. I became much weakened, and could walk but a very short distance at a time, and was often in the act of falling upon the pavement, (I would stop in some door or alley to prevent it.) in consequence of frequent palpitations; and, from what I could learn, I supposed I had disease of the heart, from frequent distressing pains about the same; as also my chest and abdomen—the latter being much distended. At this stage of my disorder I could neither eat, sleep or walk with any satisfaction to myeelf. Life seemed to be a burden to me. My feelings were gloomy beyond description.

I at length heard of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and made trial of it. I had but taken the first dose when I felt a change for the better, and hope immediately sprang up. I continued, with the use of this invaluable Tincture, to improve daily, until I had taken the contents of three bottles, which, under Divine Providence, made a perfect cure of me.

I found I had an excellent appetite, and could partake of any food, which I could not do for years previously without the most distressing sensations. I now enjoy uninterrupted good health, and have done so for the last six years; and would say to all afflicted as I have been, to cast aside your prejudices, and try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Any information beside this but meagre description of my case will be given cheerfully for the benefit of the afflicted. Yours, WILLIAM M.OLDHAM, Custom-House, dwelling, Psyette st., near Fremont.

Custom-House; dwelling, Fayette st., near Fremont.

SUCH A MASS OF HOME TESTIMONY MUST CARRY CONVICTION TO EVERY MIND.

BAUTHOME, Sep. 18, 1851.

Mesers. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gentlemen: The cure of Mr. Robert Gault, by the use of three bottles of Hampton's Vegetable Tineture, as per his certificate, is, I think, almost unprecedented. His case of extremely exeruciating suffering, from Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, came immediately under my own observation, through the last four years, which I considered entirely hopeless. Through my earnest persuasion, he was induced to try your invaluable Tineture. I was prompted to remark at the time, that if medicine would cure Mr. Gault, it certainly would "remove mountains." The knowledge of this miraculous cure compels me to consider it a duty I ow to the afflicted (and particularly to those with complaints like his) to make generally known the healing power of this truly wonderful medicine. Yours, most respectfully,

JAMES P. MERRITT,

18 Baltimore street.

ESSENCE OF COFFEE. With 123 Cents to save four Pounds of Coffee!

THIS ESSENCE has been proved by many thousands of the richest and most respectable families, as well as by the poorer class of people, almost through the whole united States, to be by far the best preparation of Coffee ever offered to the public. Coffee made by this Essence is much more wholesome, more delicate, fine-flavored, perfectly clear, and, in every instance, superior to the finest Java coffee.

perfectly clear, and, in every instance, superior to the finest Java coffee.

In order to give full satisfaction and proof that the above article is perfectly healthy, and to show something of the deserved reputation it has gained and justly entitled to, we annex a few certificates and recommendations, particularly relating to health, from Dr. Booth and Dr. Chilton, practical Chemists and Analysists of the cities of Philadelphia and New York; also, from our Agents, all of whom are prominent Chemists and Druggists.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4, 1851.

I have examined the Essence of Coffee manufactured by Hummel, Bohler & Co., and find that its constituents are not in the least degree injurious to health; it may be used freely and with perfect safety.

JAMES BOOTH, Proft. of Chemistry, spelled to Arts, Franklin Institute.

No. 73 Chambers st., New York, Aug. 22, 1851.

I have examined an article prepared by Messrs. Hummel, Bohler & Co., of Philadelphia, called Essence of Coffee, which is intended to be used with coffee for the purpose of improving it. I find it free not only from any thing injurious to health, but, on the contrary, the ingredients of which it is composed are perfectly wholesome.

Messrs. Hummel, Bohler & Co.—Gentlemen: We take pleasure in recommending your "Essence of Coffee" as a very superior article; it is extensively used in our county;
we have only had it one year, and have sold over 16,000
